

The First Annual Minnesota ABC Labor Law Forum (For Merit Shop Contractors)

Minnesota Chapter

This half day program will deal with the most significant labor and employee relations issues facing merit shop contractors. The program will discuss recent trends in union organizing, employment law and recent labor developments. We will encourage open discussion and sharing of ideas.

Program Agenda:

8:00 - 8:30 Registration and Continental Breakfast

8:30 - 9:30 A Review of Recent Labor Developments

A summary of labor law developments including Employee Free Choice Act (EFCA), new Board cases, federal cases, union issues and Obama appointments. Presented by Doug Seaton

9:30 - 10:30 . . . Employment Law Update

A summary of new employment laws and proposed legislation, pending Supreme Court cases, and review of significant cases from last year. Presented by Emily Ruhsam

10:30 - 11:30 . . Responses to Union Picketing

Discussion of legal and practical responses to Union picketing, bannering and handbilling Presented by Jon Olson

Our speakers are from the firm Seaton, Beck & Peters, P.A., which has been chapter counsel for MN ABC for 23 years. They represent employers on a host of labor law issues that protect the interests of merit shop contractors.
